3.	Sunder K. Virdi	Petitioner

ORDER

In pursuance of order dated 19.04.2016 the respondents have deposited the original statutory records with the Bench Officer and the same has been inspected by the Petitioner by obtaining xerox copies. However learned counsel for the petitioner has pointed out from the documents uploaded on the website of the ROC that the whole original records has not been deposited. In that regard my attention has been invited to annexure 'A' which has listed 13 documents/statutory books. According to the learned counsel those statutory books/records have not been produced on the excuse that the minutes book maintained upto 31.3.2014 is in the possession of the petitioner. A perusal of the documents uploaded on the website of the ROC would reveal that these documents were uploaded on 31.3.2015 and the aforesaid record is presumed to be in possession of the respondent company.

Be that as it may. Learned counsel for the respondent undertakes to deposit the whole original records available with Respondent No.1-company including any of the record listed in annexure 'A' within two weeks on or before 3.6.2016.

List for arguments on 26.7.2016 at 10.30 am.
